

GloLitter National Legal Consultant

Profile

Qualifications and Professional Experience:

- advanced university degree (Masters in maritime [and/or fisheries] environmental law) with strong academic background and proven technical skills in fields of marine litter, environmental policy, and or related field of specialization such as waste management (plastics) or circular economy, marine pollution from ships (MARPOL Annex V), sea dumping (LC/LP);
  - at least 5 years of experience working with institutions and government on issues related to environmental legislation related to the management of marine plastic litter;
  - familiar with the international legal and regulatory system and the institutional and organizational framework;
  - good knowledge of the work of IMO/FAO and of the IMO environmental instruments and FAO instruments;
  - excellent knowledge of the legal issues addressed by some (at least one of them) of the IMO environmental instruments (MARPOL Annex V, and LC/LP) and FAO voluntary guidelines on the marking of fishing gear;
  - fluent in written and spoken English (writing, speaking, listening and reading) and be computer literate;
  - good drafting and communication skills; and
  - proven teamwork and successful experience working with multi-disciplinary teams.
-